INNESS PAINTING LEADS PAYNE SALE

'Summer Storm' Brings $8,000
and His 'Sunset Near St.
Peter's, Rome,' $2,000.

77 PICTURES FOR $29,575

Times — 1-7-19
A Blakelock, 'The Full Moon,'

Fetches $2,125, and a Small
Wyant, 'An Old Field,' $900.

Seventy-seven paintings, the collection of the work of American artists formed by the late William H. Payne, were sold in the Plaza ballroom last evening under the auspices of the American Art Association, Thomas E. Kirby, in the auctioneer's chair, bringing $29,575. The paintings were by well-known artists, many of them National Academicians, some of the work of their earlier periods. There were two paintings by Inness, one of them a very beautiful example of the artist's work, "Summer Storm," brought the highest price of the evening, going to Bernet, agent, for $8,000. The second Inness, an Italian picture, "Sunset Near St. Peter's, Rome," the rays of the setting sun illuminating the dome of the cathedral in the background of the picture, went to C. Hastings for $2,000.

The Blakelocks, five of them, were purchased before the name became one to conjure with and to tempt counterfeiters. The first in the sale, a very small one, 8½ by 6½, "In the Sierra Nevada Mountains," went to John Levy for $350; a smaller "Moonlight," 5½ by 7½, went to Seaman, Agent, for $250; "The Full Moon," a beautiful example, with lace like trees seen against the evening sky, went to F. Dudensing for $2,125, the highest price of the Blakelocks; Seaman paid $1,025 for a "Landscape," and $1,850 for "Evening Landscape," trees, a bit of water in the foreground, and the suffused light of the afterglow. A small Wyant, "An Old Field," brought $900, going to C. J. Deardon. Two Tryons were sold, one, "The Close of Day," going to Bernet, Agent, for $775, and "Winter Sunset" to A. Reimann for $800.

The Higher Prices.

Among the other higher prices of the evening were the following:

16—Tiger's Head—John La Farge; Frank K. H. Rehn.....	295
20—Repair Docks, Gowanus Bay—William Merritt Chase; Bernet, agent.	200
21—Landscape and Cattle at Grez, France—Carlton Wiggins; Seaman, agent.....	210

44—Salt Marsh in September—Charles Melville Dewey; Scott & Fowles...	540
47—A Gray Day in June—Charles Harold Davis; W. N. Davis.....	225
48—Farm Lands in Autumn, (water color)—Dwight W. Tryon; Seaman, agent.....	400
60—Spring Tide—William T. Richards; Frank Dudensing.....	350
63—Sunset—J. Francis Murphy; C. Hastings.....	750

$8,000 FOR INNESS' "STORM" IN PAYNE PICTURE SALE

Paintings by American artists, owned by the late William H. Payne, were sold in the ballroom of the Plaza Hotel last night by the American Art Association, Thomas E. Kirby, auctioneer. Mr. Payne, who was a well known merchant, collected art principally to decorate his house, at Fortieth street and Park avenue, but made a specialty of American works. Seventy-seven paintings were sold, and the total was $29,575. The top price of $8,000 was paid by Otto Bernet, agent, for George Inness' "Summer Storm."

Frank Dudensing bought Blakelock's "The Full Moon" for $2,125, the second best price. Charles Hastings purchased George Inness' "Sunset Near St. Peter's, Rome," for $2,000; W. W. Seaman, agent, paid $1,850 for the Blakelock "Evening Landscape." W. W. Seaman, agent, paid $1,025 for another landscape by the same painter.

T. J. Bearden bought Alexander H. Wyant's "An Old Field" for $900. A. Reimann purchased Dwight W. Tryon's "Winter Sunset" for $800. Otto Bernet, agent, paid $775 for the same painter's "The Close of Day."

A COLLECTION OF AMERICAN PICTURES

This collection, formed by an appreciative citizen who made his selections and purchases chiefly during the '80's, is made up wholly of the works of American artists, and with two or three exceptions the subjects treated are also altogether American. The collection represents both widely known and less well known painters, both among the living and of those who have passed on, the great majority of them Academicians or Associate Members of the National Academy of Design; and the membership of the former Society of American Artists, now merged with the Academy, is also represented.

The collector, the late William H. Payne, a merchant of New York, bought not so much as a collector as for the decoration of his house and for his own delectation; he did not seek comprehensiveness, nor to demonstrate a theory, but he acquired a harmonious assemblage of pictures, varied, and of worth. He began his collecting early in the '80's, visiting the studios as well as the exhibitions. He was a member of the Art Committee of the Union League Club, and in 1887 was its chairman. His collection has until now remained as he left it, in his home at 98 Park Avenue, the corner of Fortieth Street. The relatively small number of additions to it which are included in this sale have been chosen by his family since his death.

Notable among the opportunities which the collection affords present day collectors are two fine and unusual Innenses, the "Summer Storm" and "Sunset near St. Peter's, Rome." Alexander H. Wyant, Dwight W. Tryon and J. Francis Murphy appear in early examples which will come almost as a surprise to confirmed visitors to the exhibitions and sales galleries—and come with equal welcome; and there are no less than five Blakelocks (all purchased before there arose in the land a profitable industry in the production of "Blakelocks"). Some of Emil Carlsen's fascinating early work is here, there is a La Farge from the Thomas B. Clarke collection of 1899, and among the few water colors are drawings by Winslow Homer and Edwin A. Abbey.

CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. Any bid which is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer, if, in his judgment, such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

2. The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for re-sale the lot so in dispute.

3. Payment shall be made of all or such part of the purchase money as may be required, and the names and addresses of the purchasers shall be given immediately on the sale of every lot, in default of which the lot so purchased shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

Payment of that part of the purchase money not made at the time of sale shall be made within ten days thereafter, in default of which the undersigned may either continue to hold the lots at the risk of the purchaser and take such action as may be necessary for the enforcement of the sale, or may at public or private sale, and without other than this notice, re-sell the lots for the benefit of such purchaser, and the deficiency (if any) arising from such re-sale shall be a charge against such purchaser.

4. Delivery of any purchase will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.

Deliveries will be made on sales days between the hours of 9 A. M. and 1 P. M., and on other days—except holidays—between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M.

Delivery of any purchase will be made only at the American Art Galleries, or other place of sale, as the case may be, and only on presenting the bill of purchase.

Delivery may be made, at the discretion of the Association, of any purchase during the session of the sale at which it was sold.

5. Shipping, boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, and will not be performed by the Association for purchasers. The Association will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

6. Storage of any purchase shall be at the sole risk of the purchaser. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter, while the Association will exercise due caution in caring for and delivering such purchase, it will not hold itself responsible if such purchase be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

Storage charges will be made upon all purchases not removed within ten days from the date of the sale thereof.

7. Guarantee is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness or authenticity of any lot, and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing, or any imperfection not noted. Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, after which it is sold "as is" and without recourse.

The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly, and will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued, and, in its judgment, may either sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert, who thereby would become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without proper foundation.

Height, 15 inches; width, 12 inches

IN the foreground the figure of the fair young daughter of Polonius is floating on a winding stream, buoyed by the billowing folds of her white gown; in one hand a wreath of brilliant flowers. Above her, weeping willows arch the stream, and beneath their dark boughs the eye roams over wandering valleys and hillsides to a light horizon.

Queen. There is a willow grows ascaunt the brook, . . .
There on the pendent boughs her coronet weeds
Clambering to hang, an envious sliver broke;
When down her weedy trophies, and herself,
Fell in the weeping brook. Her clothes spread wide;
And, mermaid-like, a while they bore her up:

Till that the garments, heavy with their drink,
Pull'd the poor wretch from her melodious lay,

Height, 15½ inches; width, 12 inches

By the Artist, 1863

SELF-PORTRAIT at three-quarters length. The painter is seated in a carved wood high-backed chair, facing the spectator and turned slightly toward the left. He wears a brown suit, and a flowing black dressing-gown with turned-back cuffs of turquoise-blue, and holds between his knees a bottle of wine which he regards with interest. Two tall slender glasses stand on a table at his elbow. His sober attire is warmed by the crimson upholstery of his chair seat, and above his head a partly set palette hangs against the wall.

1847—

3. Condensing Height, 16 inches; length, 24 inches

THE full moon well above the horizon shines white in a greenish sky. Across the middleground a screen of trees extends, standing out in sharp silhouette, the light defining leafage and branches in shadowy intricacy of detail. Nestling in the deeper shadow of the trees, near the center of the screen, a ridge-roofed cottage appears, with bold chimney and a single lighted window.

36—THE CLOSE OF DAY

Height, 14 inches; length, 20 inches

A BIT of wild country without habitation, an open wood, is pictured at the hour when bits of cloud above the horizon are still aglow with sunset colors while the crescent moon, far at the left and little above their own altitude, shines white in a greenish sky. The moon is seen above the top of a grayish copse, a dense tree turned a russet-brown stands near, and off to the right feathery trees light and slender rise amid clumps of bush and project above the distant blue-hilled skyline. In the middleground the low brush turns from green to brown and a deep red, and a pool in the foreground reflects the green of the sky, enriched by the warmth of a rosy cloud.

1855—1891

65- 41—PORTRAIT

Height, 20 inches; width, 16 inches

W. C. Thompson

HEAD and shoulders of a mature young woman, figure slightly to the left and face turned forward, with the light striking broadly from the right beneath a broad-rimmed hat worn at an angle and adorned with plumes. She wears a greenish-brown dress, and a fur cloak lined with crimson.

Signed at the lower right, B. R. FITZ.

WILLIAM MERRITT CHASE, N.A.

1849—1916

55- 42—THE JAPANESE DOLL

Height, 19½ inches; length, 24 inches

Le Roy, Ireland

A STILL life of rich but low-toned surfaces, embracing an opened picture book and before it a pear-shaped jar of dark greenish hue, into which has been thrust a Japanese doll dressed in a red kimono.

Signed at the lower right, WM. M. CHASE.

FREDERIC E. CHURCH, N.A.

1826—1900

43—LANDSCAPE

Height, 18 inches; length, 26 inches

A WINDING river divides the foreground; on the left two women in red and blue stand on a sandy point from which a punt with passengers is departing, and on the right bank are two cows and a farmhouse, in shadow. In the background, a valley and mountains in sunshine.

Signed at the lower right, F. CHURCH.

1851—

540- 44—SALT MARSH IN SEPTEMBER

Height, 16 inches; length, 24 inches

Salt Marsh

FLAT and marshy meadows reaching to a distant bay glow in the warm yellow-browns of autumn, relieved by patches of soft, fresh green, and are penetrated by a rambling inlet, along whose banks single-masted sailboats are made fast. Near the foreground stands a small thatch-roofed building, and others are silhouetted in the distance against another inlet.

Signed at the lower left, CHARLES MELVILLE DEWEY.

Height, $15\frac{3}{4}$ inches; length, $23\frac{1}{2}$ inches

W. L. Sontag
1890

CLOSE in the foreground a slope and the plain at its foot are in clear view, with pines and fallen trunks, gray boulders and some trees in autumn coloring. In the distance are green peaks and diversified valleys, in an envelopment of shifting mountain mists which yield glimpses of an azure sky.

CHARLES HAROLD DAVIS, N.A.

1856—

725- 47—A GRAY DAY IN JUNE

Height, 18 inches; length, 24 inches

C. H. Davis

A SILVERY gray brook crosses the foreground, bearing reflections of the flags that line its farther bank. In the background gray cottages and farm buildings of France cross the picture, with an intervening screen of tall poplars. In the middleground are grass and hay fields and a plowed strip; and a woman and a cow, standing in a meadow, throw no shadows on the grass, under the soft light of the cloud-spread gray sky.

Signed at the lower left, C. H. DAVIS, PARIS, '84.

48—POINT ISABEL, FLORIDA

Height, 12 inches; length, 24 inches

BROAD flat stretches of creamy-yellow sand, warmed by patches of yellow-brown and orange herbage, fill foreground and left middleground, where they meet the distant sea. A sail there glints a soft creamy-white, on a sunless day. In the right middleground, on slightly higher land, masses of vegetation rich in color, dominated by two short cabbage palms, and in the distance a point of woods.

IN THE CATSKILLS

Height, 18 inches; length, 24 inches

John E. Smith

Rocks bare and moss covered, gray and rich mahogany-brown, surround a small pool in an open space within a forest. At the left a gnarled and blasted tree is carefully studied, with a slender one which has prematurely all but succumbed to nature bending over upon it from the right. Around the background are dense woods, green and in a mellow light.

61—WINTER SUNSET

Height, 16 inches; length, 24 inches

A ROLLING meadow in the foreground, and hillside fields separated by stone fences to left and in the distance, lie under a thick covering of snow, through which occasional tufts of grass come up, showing green or brown. Far away, gray barns. In the middle distance on the right a clump of light gray leafless trees and dense brown bushes. Over the crest of the distant undulatory skyline a golden arc of the setting sun, and at the left the white new moon.

Signed at the lower right, D. W. TRYON, 1885

FREDERICK S. CHURCH, N.A.

1842—

62—A SIBYL

Height, 19½ inches; length, 38 inches

AN opalescent fantaisie in delicate color, picturing a handsome young seeress gazing at the head of a man, which she holds in her extended arms on a marble table, while the fumes of incense drift past it and toward her sensitive nostrils. The head is darkened and is wrapped in a yellow scarf. The sibyl, seen only above the waist and a little more than in profile, toward the left, wears a drapery of pale emerald gauze. In the background the colorful trees of a land of visions.

Height, 13 inches; length, 24 inches

BANKS of cloud extending all across a faint greenish-blue sky are edged and flooded with flame hues from the just departed sun, and beneath them a stratum along the horizon reflects a brilliant golden-yellow. Both the flame and the gold reappear on the surface of a stream in the foreground, while the intervening landscape is dark and indefinite. To right of the water a low, dense and widely branching tree stands out in strong silhouette, and beyond it smoke is curling from a farmhouse chimney.
